

American. We all here hope today that even though this tragic loss has denied the family of Mr. Brown's presence, as they walk past the courthouse and see his name there, some of the friendly presence that he left with us will be felt by them.

The gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. SHUSTER] could not be here for this, but he concurs strongly with the naming of this Federal building after the distinguished life and service of Mr. Brown.

I urge my colleagues to support the bill.

Mr. TRAFICANT. Mr. Speaker, continuing my reservation of objection, I yield to the gentleman from Minnesota [Mr. OBERSTAR].

Mr. OBERSTAR. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for yielding to me, and I thank the gentleman from Maryland for bringing this resolution to the House floor.

I think it is very appropriate and fitting for us to name a building in New York in Secretary Brown's hometown for him to carry on the name and the memory of the very distinguished service that he provided to this country in so many arenas, but particularly as a most distinguished Secretary of Commerce whose focus was jobs, tourism, economic growth, expansion of trade, protecting American interests at home and abroad. He was a truly great American, and naming of this building is a modest way in which we can perpetuate his memory.

Mr. TRAFICANT. Mr. Speaker, I want to commend the gentleman from New York [Mr. RANGEL], the sponsor of this bill, for the work that he has done to bring it up in such a timely fashion. I want to thank Mr. GILCHREST and the majority for being considerate of Mr. RANGEL and our concerns.

I also have great concerns that Mr. Brown's legacy should be reflected here with a presence in Washington and would like to place on notice to our committee that we will look into those regards.

I would also like to say that Ron Brown did something else that was quite unusual. He helped to put the Democrat party together and to elect a Democrat President. And I believe without Ron Brown, the Democrats in the White House would not quite be there.

In addition to that, I echo the words of our distinguished ranking member, Mr. OBERSTAR. I think Ron Brown was a fighter. He was concerned with people. He was always willing to take our calls and work with us on projects.

Mr. Speaker, I am honored to stand today to designate the Federal building on Broadway in New York City, as does its sponsor, Mr. RANGEL, and designate that building as the Ronald H. Brown Federal Building. It is absolutely deserving.

Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my reservation of objection and I urge support of H.R. 3560.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Maryland?

There was no objection.

The Clerk read the bill, as follows:

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Maryland?

There was no objection.

Mr. GILCHREST. This amendment, Mr. Speaker, simply strikes the finding from the bill. This is to conform to the bill to the style used by the committee.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the amendment in the nature of a substitute offered by the gentleman from Maryland [Mr. GILCHREST].

The amendment in the nature of a substitute was agreed to.

The bill was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time, was read the third time, and passed, and a motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

SAM M. GIBBONS U.S.
COURTHOUSE

Mr. GILCHREST. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure be discharged from further consideration of the bill (H.R. 3710) to designate a U.S. courthouse located in Tampa, FL, as the "Sam M. Gibbons U.S. Courthouse" and ask for its immediate consideration in the House.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Maryland?

Mr. TRAFICANT. Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object, I will not object, and I yield to the gentleman from Maryland [Mr. GILCHREST] for an explanation.

Mr. GILCHREST. Mr. Speaker, the bill designates the U.S. courthouse located at 611 North Florida Avenue, Tampa, FL, as the Sam M. Gibbons U.S. courthouse.

SAM GIBBONS has been a distinguished Member of this body for 34 years and will be retiring after he finishes his 17th term in the House of Representatives. SAM has a long history of public service, beginning in World War II, where he served as captain in the 501st Parachute Infantry/101st airborne division. He was part of the initial assault force in Normandy on D-Day and was awarded the Bronze Star for his actions.

SAM has been a Member of the Committee on Ways and Means since 1969, where he served as acting chairman in 1994 and became ranking minority member in the 104th Congress.

SAM has conducted himself with dignity and commanded respect from those who have served with him. I urge my colleagues to support this fitting tribute to our distinguished colleague.

The gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. SHUSTER], who could not be here today, strongly supports this legislation.

I, as a Member of the House, Mr. GIBBONS, an American and a veteran thank you for your long, distinguished, courageous career to this most great country, the United States.

Mr. TRAFICANT. Mr. Speaker, continuing my reservation of objection, I yield to the distinguished gentleman from Minnesota [Mr. OBERSTAR].

Mr. OBERSTAR. Mr. Speaker, I want to express my appreciation to the ranking member, Mr. GILCHREST, chairman of the subcommittee, and Chairman SHUSTER for moving this and the previous unanimous-consent request to name these buildings for distinguished Americans and in this case for a very distinguished colleague.

All of us will long treasure in our memories the vision of SAM GIBBONS striding to the well of the House without a document in hand but only a gifted, able, agile, and retentive mind to instruct us as a moral conscience on the Tax Code of the United States and our trade laws and to instruct and to guide and to shape responsible legislation.

He will long be remembered by our Canadian colleagues to the north for his service on the Canada-United States interparliamentary group, for the relations that he cemented, established and broadened with our neighbors to the north and during which service he shaped many of the policies that guide the destinies of our two countries and fostered strong and warm relations between us and our neighbor to the north.

He will indelibly be remembered by the French for his landing at St. Mere Eglise in that Normandy invasion. He was a parachutist, risking life in a manner so vulnerable, none of us can possibly understand it until you have experienced it. None of us can fully appreciate the gratitude of the French until you have seen delegations of French parliamentarians who have been to this country, and I have witnessed it. And Mr. GIBBONS talks about that extraordinary experience and the French respond with tears in their eyes, gratitude in their hearts and a grateful memory of a wonderful nation that appreciates the sacrifice and the risk that was taken.

The naming of this building is a small token that we can all take and we can all offer for the long and enduring memory of the many gifts that SAM GIBBONS has shared with us and the lasting monument, body of legislation and sacrifice that he has offered for this Nation, for its good and for others for all time to come.

Mr. TRAFICANT. Mr. Speaker, SAM GIBBONS was a war hero. He has been a congressional hero. He is an American hero. In the delicate nature of the work he performed not everybody may have agreed on every single little issue. But never, ever was the integrity, the direction, the focus of which he pursued his endeavors ever questioned. No one has been more respected.

I am glad that I am in a position to have an opportunity to speak on this and to have played a part in it.

I want to thank the gentleman, Mr. GILCHREST, and the Republicans. I want to also notify the Members of the House that this enacting and enabling legislation has a date of January 3, 1997, because Mr. GIBBONS is still a powerful seated Member of this Congress and we are so proud to have him.

I just want to say personally on behalf of myself, all the Members from our committee, the entire Democrat caucus and everyone who has worked in this House who knows this man that Tampa will be a much more graceful and elegant place with the naming of this building.

Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my reservation of objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Maryland?

There was no objection.

The Clerk read the bill, as follows:

SENSE-OF-CONGRESS RESOLUTION REGARDING THE ARMED MILITIA

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Texas [Ms. JACKSON-LEE] is recognized for 5 minutes.

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas. Mr. Speaker, it has been a week, but certainly we can say that though we may have disagreed, this Congress has attempted to work on behalf of the American people.

I would hope that even if something is threatening, that something is confusing, that there is something that we are not sure of, that we still, as a Congress, have the courage to bring it to the attention of the American people.
